
ARNOLD & PORTER (UK) LLP

All you ever wanted to know about UK employment law and were afraid to ask—At no charge!

Many US HR professionals are expected to handle employment issues in the EU. But the law is so different!

- No employment at will
- Employment contracts as standard
- Discrimination law a different ballgame
- A tough unfair dismissal regime
- Data privacy—an ongoing nightmare
- Leave we can only dream of in the US
- New immigration rules for key employees

Don't worry, help is at hand!

Henry Clinton-Davis, head of the employment law team at Arnold & Porter (UK) LLP, an international law firm, invites you to a unique question and answer session on UK employment law, "COFFEE WITH HENRY," hosted by UK Trade & Investment at the British Consulate in Massachusetts.

Wednesday, 2 December 2009
9.00 a.m.–11.00 a.m.

British Consulate
One Memorial Drive, Suite 1500
Cambridge, MA 02142

Feel free to submit questions by email to Henry. He will take a selection, and answer them over coffee and biscuits.

Places are limited and will be provided on a first come, first served basis. RSVP (with any questions): Maria.Demetriou@aporter.com
