

Elizabeth Porfido*

Law Clerk
New York

Elizabeth.Porfido@arnoldporter.com
+1 212.836.7979

Elizabeth Porfido assists attorneys advising clients in complex civil antitrust litigation, government review of mergers and acquisitions, filing obligations under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, and counseling clients in relation to antitrust issues.

Ms. Porfido graduated from Brooklyn Law School magna cum laude in 2021. During law school, Ms. Porfido served as a legal intern at the Housing Conservation Coordinators, an IP & Data Privacy legal intern for a luxury goods company, and as a judicial intern for the Honorable Kiyu Matsumoto in the Eastern District of New York. Ms. Porfido also served as an Executive Articles Editor of the Brooklyn Journal of Corporate, Financial & Commercial Law.

Law School Recognition

- Prince Scholarship
- Humphreys Family Opportunity Prize
- Benjamin and Gladys Stein Scholarship
- CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Writing for the Trial Lawyer

Professional and Community Activities

- Student Ambassador, American Bar Association Section of Antitrust Law - Health Care and Pharmaceuticals Committee (2019-2021)
- Volunteer, New Sanctuary Coalition - (anti)Detention Project (2016-2018)

Areas of Focus

- Antitrust/Competition

Education

- JD, Brooklyn Law School, 2021, magna cum laude
- BA, Skidmore College, 2014

Admissions

- *Not admitted to the practice of law