Arnold & Porter
arnoldporter.com

Arnold & Porter's Global Law & Public Policy practice delivers unparalleled strategic advice and legal guidance to governments, multinational corporations, and individuals navigating today's complex global landscape. Co-chaired by John Bellinger, former Legal Adviser to the Department of State, and Ambassador Tom Shannon, former Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs, the practice draws on the experience of more than a dozen former senior U.S. and non-U.S. officials, diplomats, and leaders from a variety of institutions. Our team combines deep strategic insight with legal expertise. With a proven track record of success helping clients understand and manage geopolitical risks, regulatory changes, and trade and investment dynamics with tailored strategies, our firm is uniquely positioned to address global strategic challenges and capitalize on opportunities.

We bring together distinguished diplomats, lawyers, and policy advisors with deep relationships and extensive expertise in foreign policy, national security, and international commerce. Many of our professionals have held senior leadership roles in U.S. and international government agencies, multilateral organizations, international financial institutions, industry associations, and global corporations. This breadth of experience enables us to provide customized, effective solutions that integrate political insights, legal acumen, and commercial strategies.

Our team comprises former senior officials who previously served in: The White House and the Executive Office of the President; U.S. Departments of Commerce, Defense/War, Homeland Security, Justice, State, and Treasury; Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR); National Security Council (NSC); Central Intelligence Agency (CIA); National Security Agency (NSA); U.S. House of Representatives; U.S. Senate; European Commission; Inter-American Investment Corporation (IDB Invest); International Court of Justice (ICJ); North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO); United Nations; World Bank; and U.S. Chamber of Commerce. For biographical information on the full team, please see here.
