

ROUNDTABLE
BREAKFAST SERIES

Lawyers Partnering with Business

Arnold & Porter LLP and its co-sponsors are pleased to announce the latest in an on-going series of seminars hosted by our Northern Virginia office. These programs are held over breakfast and focus on pressing business and legal issues facing local businesses, with an emphasis on government contractors. Along with showcasing the interdisciplinary capabilities of both our Washington, DC and Northern Virginia offices, the seminars also introduce outside speakers who bring unique and timely perspective to the topics.

The Effect of the New Administration on Acquisition:
How, What, When, Why, and How Much?

Arnold & Porter and its co-sponsors host a distinguished panel of professionals:

Panel: Tom Davis, Former Congressman (R-VA); Former Chairman of the Oversight and Reform Committee, Director in Deloitte's Federal Government Relations

Jim Turner, Former Congressman (D-TX); Partner, Arnold & Porter LLP

Jennifer DiMascio, Writer, Politico

Major General (USA-Ret.) James A. "Spider" Marks, President and CEO, Global Linguist Solutions, a DynCorp International Company

Hon. Claude M. Bolton, Jr., DSc, Executive-In-Residence, Defense Acquisition University

Alan Chvotkin, Executive Vice President and Counsel, Professional Services Council

Moderator: David Metzger, Partner, Arnold & Porter LLP

Presenting an informative dialogue on:

- The "Big Picture" predictions on defense spending under the Obama administration
- How Capitol Hill will affect acquisition and acquisition reform
- Schedules, training, workforce, research, budget, funding, socio-economic, priorities, the effect of bail-outs, and other issues

Date: Tuesday, February 10, 2009

Time: *7:15–8:00 a.m. – Registration and networking breakfast
8:00–10:30 a.m. – Program with Q&A*

Place: *The Ritz-Carlton, Tysons Corner
1700 Tysons Boulevard
McLean, VA 22102*

Please RSVP by February 6, 2009 at arnoldporter.com/roundtable